

HE'S COMING BACK!
LET US LIVE AS THOUGH TODAY IS THE DAY!

We don't know how long the LORD will tarry - but the truth is: Jesus Christ is coming back to take his people out of the world in a sudden dramatic event - The Rapture. Is this the generation or will it be the next? Does the rapture takes place immediately before or immediately after the Tribulation. Only our Father knows.

We hope for a Pre-Tribulation Rapture, but we share the gospel of Jesus as though today is this person's last chance to repent and be saved. Because even though they're here this moment, they may be dead in an hour. "behold, now is the acceptable time, behold, today is the day of salvation." 1 Cor. 6:2

IN THE TIME BETWEEN NOW AND THE RAPTURE this painting/kit is a tool to spark a conversation in which you can share the gospel NOW! It is designed to make unbelievers curious and get them to ask you about the hand written letter under the glass: 'What's all this about disappearing?' (Well, since you asked me..)

We've enclosed a Scripture List/Salvation Answer sheet for you to xerox and hand out to anyone who asks you about the letter in the frame. First, share the Rapture/Tribulation then ask them the two questions on the Scripture sheet and share the salvation Jesus offers. When you're done, hand them the Scripture Sheet freely but NEVER GIVE THE LETTER ON THE FRONT TO A CURIOUS UNBELIEVER. If they ask what the letter says simply hand them a Scripture Sheet and say: 'I've read it, much of the same information is in here.' Yet don't offend them by making it seem like a 'big secret for insiders only'.

To an unsaved reader before the rapture, the letter telling what happened to all of us might mislead them into thinking they have time to put off their decision; to wait and see what happens. Take care! It would be a spiritual error and a misuse of this piece if we gave even one person the impression they have time to put off accepting Christ and live as they choose because they might get a second chance after a rapture. "Behold, today is the day of salvation." 1 Cor 6:2 (See also Matt 25:42-51)

IF THE RAPTURE COMES BEFORE THE TRIBULATION then this piece will be left behind to speak for you. We hope those left on earth will find or remember your testimony and this treasure on the wall of your home or office and go back to search for the truth hidden inside.

During the Tribulation the enemy will lie to confuse those poor souls who will endure or die in the cataclysmic events that will occur. This piece would shout the truth to anyone who remembered it or came across it for the first time. Let us be prepared to give evidence for the truth of Christ's return and have a way to reach out to those who will say 'mountains, fall on us' because of their despair. (Luke 23:30)

Whether we 'disappear' because of the 'war on the saints', refusing to take "the mark" spoken of in Rev. 13:17, or because the Rapture comes before the Tribulation, it's possible that strangers will be living in our homes once we're gone. And why not - we're in the best home of all? And how else would they find the Family Rapture Legacy? Put it in a prominent place! We had a few ideas that might make your witness and their lives a little easier during that difficult period in history. Tape a note to the backing telling them where you've hidden a Bible in a metal box - a treasure map, so to speak. Write your personal testimonies and put them inside the Bible. Or write a special blessing on them as they live in your home and use your things. Perhaps you had cash tucked away or an extra set of car keys? You could leave a list of phone #'s of friends who aren't saved and need to read the letter in the frame. Have fun with the note/box but remember the most important thing is to use their curious questions about the letter to open up talk RIGHT NOW about Jesus love and sacrifice.

See you in the Clouds!
